

Maurice Hall

Born in Miami, FL, Maurice is the youngest of three children. Maurice attended The Ohio State University where he was a member of the National Championship Football Team in 2002. Maurice scored the game winning touchdowns against The University of Illinois and the University of Michigan in the National Championship season. Maurice realized he was at Ohio State for a purpose and that was to get his degree where he graduated in 2005 with a degree in Communications.

Currently Maurice works at The Ohio State University in the Athletics Administration Office as the Assistant to the Athletic Director. He also works at NBC 4 utilizing his degree as a sports analyst. On top of Maurice's jobs he has continued his education at The Ohio State University where he is working on his masters in Sport Administration with the hopes of being a Division I Athletic Director one day.

Maurice Hall is the owner of Mo-tivation Unlimited, LLC; a company designed to inform, prepare and encourage individuals for success through education, healthy living, persistence, belief in self, and work ethic events put on by the company. Maurice believes if a person has all of the above qualities success is inevitable.

Maurice believes all of his success is because of the favor that God has shown in his life. He gives all thanks to him for all the blessings that he has been fortunate to receive.
